

Puck says that the first thing one has to learn in golf or bicycling is what to wear.

We agree to that. Breaches with extension bottoms or buckles; shoes, caps, belts, stockings and sweaters—everything the bicycling man or boy wears.

Men's Suits $12 to $22; long trousers for ordinary wear with some. Boys' $7.50 to $12.

Our catalogue goes into details; mailed free. ROGERS PEET & CO.

PLANT'S FINE FURNITURE. Oh, for a seat in some poetic nook. LEON HUNT.

None more poetic could be dreamed of than the curious swings used in India. They are made of carved wood, with a wide double seat, cushioned with numerous pillows and suspended with massive chains.

They are reproduced these, slightly modernized, with most delightful results. They are an immense improvement on the old-fashioned hammock and are extremely picturesque, as well as practically comfortable for a wide piazza.

Nothing ever equalled them. You have only to see one to be convinced. "BUY OF THE MAKER"
